

2023 Feminist
Calendar

awid

AWID is a part of an incredible ecosystem of feminist movements working to achieve gender justice and social justice worldwide. With our 40th anniversary, we are celebrating all that we've built over these last 40 years. As a global feminist movement support organization we know that working with fierce feminisms is our way forward, acknowledging both the multiplicity of feminisms and the value of fierce and unapologetic drive for justice. The state of the world and of feminist movements calls for brave conversations and action. We look forward to working together with our members, partners and funders in creating the worlds we believe in, celebrating the wins and speaking truth to power in service of feminist movements globally.

The 2023 Feminist Calendar is our gift to movements. It features the artwork of some of our amazing AWID members.

Use it. Print it. Share it.

Nafisa Ferdous

Nafisa Ferdous is a feminist illustrator born in Dhaka, Bangladesh & is currently based in Queens, NYC. She has worked for feminist organizations like CREA & Prospera & makes art on sexuality, community & social movements. You can follow Nafisa on Instagram @__petni, which means 'witch' in Bangla.

María José Mesías - Illustrator Pepa

She was born in Ecuador. She works with organizations and social projects, on issues such as violence, gender equality, human rights and migration. She publishes in magazines, blogs, podcasts and books. She uses analog and mixed techniques based on research and conceptualization. Her style is full of emotion and sincerity.

Marcela Salas

Experimental illustrator, fat, lesbian and butch activist from Bogotá, Colombia. I found a way to represent fatness as a possible appearance for women, from drawings based on photographs and self-portraits, mine and others, breaking into the hegemony of everyday and political spaces from my experience.

Alicia Nieto

Freelance illustrator and graffiti artist since 2001. She currently works in Euronpud (network of harm reduction activists in Europe) and with the Contorno Urbano Foundation in educational projects. She carries out her activism with urban art, bringing to the public stage different discourses coming from intersectional transfeminism.
